OUR TOWN

Despite the heat, there was plenty of family fun including three-legged races, obstacle course, a bounce house, face painting and dunk tank celebrities including Naples Police Chief Tom Weschler, Republican candidate for State Representative Byron Donalds, WINK news reporter Jenny Jones, radio personality Babbs from B103.9 and businessman Scott G. Blackburn, CFP, Principal, IMC.

ON THE COVER

Cancer survivors including Kim Cannizzaro carry the banner for the Survivors' Lap that kicks off the event. The 2015 Golden Gate Relay for Life went all night at the Golden Gate Community Center on April 17, with hundreds circling the field and raising tens of thousands of dollars for the fight against cancer.
