OUR TOWN

Naples girls Lily Kettler and Alivia Ercolani recently set up a lemonade stand near their home, raising more than $15 for The Shelter for Abused Women & Children. The donation was accompanied by a hand-drawn picture and note, reading, "Thank you for all you do." The Shelter is most grateful for the support of these tiny "NextGenerators" and their dedication to creating social change.

ON THE COVER

Students are headed back to school soon. The back-to-school sales tax holiday runs Aug. 7 through Aug. 16. See pages A12 and A13 for a list of sites to donate school supplies and how to receive supplies as well. Don't forget to get your child's immunizations before school starts.

CORRECTIONS

Space is reserved on this page for corrections and clarifications. The Citizen promptly corrects all errors of substance. Clarifications are published when the editors believe the information will help readers better understand an issue or news event. If you think we have made an error, call Jay Schlichter at 239-213-6065 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.
