SHELTER FOR ABUSED WOMEN & CHILDREN

IMMOKALEE CHILDREN'S FAIR AND PEACE MARCH // OCT. 26 2015

The Shelter for Abused Women & Children hosted the 17th annual Immokalee Children's Fair and Peace March at the Collier County Immokalee Sports Complex, in recognition of National Domestic Violence Awareness month.?

The march, which was police-escorted, started at the Sports Complex, traveling to downtown Immokalee and back. The purpose of the march was to raise awareness about domestic violence. Participants held signs, chanted and came together to promote peace.

The Shelter's 10th annual Immokalee Children's Fair, which was free and open to the public, took place earlier that afternoon, bringing out more than 400 participants to play games, eat food and win prizes.
