

CAUGHT IN THE ACT OF KINDNESS

MENDING BROKEN HEARTS WITH HOPE

Ralph and Shelly Stayer

19th Annual Mending Broken Hearts with Hope Chairs
Denise Wilburn, left, and Donna Isenmann

The Shelter for Abused Women & Children celebrated its 19th annual Mending Broken Hearts with Hope luncheon, Monday, Feb. 18, drawing 864 registered guests. Proceeds from the luncheon and the accompanying auction and boutique provide life-saving programs and services to survivors of domestic violence and human trafficking.

Shelter CDO Cyndi Fields, left, receives an award for years of service from Shelter CEO Linda Oberhaus

From left, Simone Lutgert, Serena Parisi, Jennifer Parisi, emcee and NBC-2 news anchor Kellie Burns, Cathy Lubner and Heather Dockweiler

Shelter Board of Directors, from left, Betsy Novakovich, Chief Tom Weschler, Karen Smith, Bill Waltrip, J. Dean Lewis Lohman, Sheriff Kevin Rambosk, Jacquelyn Pierce and Thomas Leipzig

Shelter Board of Trustees, from left, Pat Wheeler, Barbara Jordan, Linda Meak, Judy Embrescia, Shelter CEO Linda Oberhaus, Cinnny Murray, Linda Sims, Erika Aron, Nancy White, Carolyn Tieger, Christine Flynn and Carol Dinarido